1. Students who have taken MATH 104 or higher or have met the Math Competency may take PSYC 265 instead of MATH 246.

Other courses may apply. Students should consult an adviser to determine applicability of courses being considered.

NOTE 1: Social Work majors will still be required to complete their Service-Learning Requirement prior to application for admission to the program and SW 290 has Service-Learning embedded for all students. Some social work positions require fluency in a foreign language, and students are encouraged to consider a minor in Spanish.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory Policy. No degree credit may be earned under the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory option in IDIS 100 or SW 100 or any Social Work Department course numbered 200 or higher which is required for the major.

Students must meet all course prerequisites.
