

FAMILY STUDIES, MINOR

Liberal Arts (Code 487-401)

For advising, contact Kristine Knutson (Communication and Journalism).

The interdisciplinary Family Studies Minor is designed to:

- Enhance students' understanding of the issues and problems confronting contemporary families from sociological, developmental, psychological, historical, religious, economic, and anthropologic perspectives;
- Examine the well-being of diverse individuals and families over the lifespan including the dynamic relations within families and the interaction between families and society;
- Provide an interdisciplinary liberal arts base for students who wish to pursue graduate study and careers working to improve the lives of individuals, families and communities; and
- Provide a knowledge of family studies that will foster personal and social development of the individual student.
