Department Website (https://www.uwec.edu/academics/college-education-human-sciences/departments-programs/teacher-education-program/departments/education-studies/)

The Department of Education for Equity and Justice prepares teachers for elementary, middle level, and high school classrooms through several programs. Through a series of courses and experiences emphasizing reflection, decision-making, and collaborative leadership, students develop knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary for effective teaching. The department offers a Master of Education - Professional Development (MEPD) degree. The program gives participants a variety of opportunities to enhance their professional competencies in the areas of curriculum development and design, instructional strategies and technology, assessment and data-based decision making, leadership development, equity, diversity, and inclusivity, and research design and development.

Graduate Programs
- Professional Development - Master of Education - Professional Development (http://catalog.uwec.edu/graduate/programs/education-for-equity-justice/professional-development-mepd/)

All 500- and 600-level graduate courses include requirements or assignments which differentiate them from 300- and 400-level undergraduate courses. Students who have taken a course at the 300- or 400-level may not include that course at the 500- or 600-level in a graduate program, except in the case of special topics courses when the topic is not the same as that taken at the undergraduate level. Course restrictions listed are based on the undergraduate course. Questions regarding course restrictions for graduate students should be directed to the appropriate department office.
