College of Business Vision and Mission

Our Vision
To be a leading regional College of Business recognized for our innovative teaching, distinctive academic programs, and value-added educational experiences.

Our Mission
“The College of Business prepares students for success”
Students completing a degree program are prepared to achieve success, whether their next step is employment in their chosen field, graduate study, not-for-profit work, a new career, or a new direction for their current career. Our undergraduate and graduate curricula are designed to provide students with the content knowledge and skills needed to achieve success throughout their careers and lives.

Undergraduate Learning Goals
The College of Business curriculum builds on and enhances the campus liberal education core curriculum. The curriculum provides a broad-based exposure to the functional areas of business through the Business Core (BUSCORE). The various majors provide depth of study within a specific business function. Additionally, the curriculum is designed to provide repeated exposure and mastery of focused learning goals critical to student success:

- Oral and written communication skills
- Problem-solving skills

Student Classification
Students may declare a major or minor in the College of Business upon admission to the university. Students may also declare "Pre-Business (https://catalog.uwec.edu/undergraduate/business/pre-professional-programs/)") status if they intend to major in the College of Business, or are highly considering a College of Business major, but have not yet decided what that major will be.

Dean’s List
At the end of each semester the University recognizes excellence in scholastic achievement by publishing the Dean’s List. Admitted undergraduate students are eligible, if they meet the following criteria for the semester:

- earn a minimum of 12 credits,
- be in good academic standing,
- earn a minimum semester GPA of 3.70,
- have no courses with the following grades: Incomplete, Withdrawal, Audit, or Satisfactory/U nsatisfactory (except in courses that are offered only on the S/U grading system in which a grade of S has been earned),

College of Business Laptop Computer Requirement
Select courses offered in the College of Business require students to bring a laptop computer to class. Additional information is available on the College of Business (https://www.uwec.edu/academics/college-business/) website.

Experience-Based Learning
Business students can broaden their education and gain additional skills and competencies through participation in learning experiences outside of the traditional classroom. The College of Business encourages students to participate in one or more of the following experience-based learning opportunities.

College of Business Internships
All College of Business undergraduate students are encouraged to participate in an internship during their course of studies (see the “Internships within College of Business Programs (https://www.uwec.edu/academics/college-business/academic-resources/internships/)” webpage for more information). College-approved internships may be taken for credit or as a transcripted, non-credit activity. Credit internships generally involve a greater degree of faculty/staff oversight and/or peer interaction during the internship experience. This may take the form of internship site visits, online internship class discussions, faculty feedback on student journals, etc.

General Internship Requirements
To be approved as a for-credit or transcripted, non-credit internship in the College of Business, the following minimum criteria must be satisfied:

- Students are expected to have relevant work assignments that provide value to the hosting organization, while engaged in college-level learning experiences. Most internship positions satisfying this requirement are paid positions. Department of Labor guidelines determine whether an intern should be treated as an employee under the Fair Labor Standards Act.
- Accordingly, and in compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act, internships at “for profit” private sector organizations must offer at least the minimum wage and overtime compensation for hours worked over 40 in a workweek. Employers must communicate to the student whether the internship is paid or unpaid. Department of Labor interpretation of FLSA currently permits unpaid internships in public sector and non-profit charitable organizations where the intern volunteers without expectation of compensation.
- The employer must designate and provide contact information for an internship supervisor. The supervisor will provide mentoring and guidance during the internship and will submit an evaluation of student performance at the end of the internship.
- A transcripted, non-credit internship must provide (at a minimum) hours worked satisfying the requirements for a one-credit internship.
Students should contact their respective major department offices in the College of Business for additional, department-specific requirements and procedures regarding internship credit and transcripting.

Internship Procedures
- Students are encouraged to utilize campus resources such as Career Services, fall and spring Career Conferences, student organizations, and other sources to secure internship employment opportunities.
- The internship must be approved by the student’s major department chair or chair’s designee prior to the work experience.
- If the internship is to be completed for university credit (see below), the student must register for the appropriate internship course prior to the work experience.

Credit-Bearing Internships

Note: Credit internship registration is required for the internship to qualify as "Full Time Equivalent Enrollment Status".

Students may earn university credit for their internship work, as determined by the department chair or internship coordinator. The number of work hours required per credit earned will depend on department policy and the nature of the internship. Additionally, each department or program may limit the number of internship credits that may be applied toward major, college, or university graduation requirements.

Students who are interested in the Business Internship Program should contact their department chair within the College of Business or the Career Counselor, located in Vicki Lord Larson Hall 2100, 715-836-3487. Additional information is available on the College of Business page for an up-to-date listing of College of Business scholarships.

International Education

The College of Business faculty strongly encourage all business students to study abroad and/or complete an international internship. In today’s business world there are no longer hundreds of isolated markets but rather many very interconnected markets within a global economy. Chances are high that a student majoring in business will end up in a career which will require knowledge and skills needed for operating effectively in the international markets. Employers are looking for individuals who demonstrate self-confidence, independence, global awareness, and knowledge of a multicultural world. To help students gain these skills and competencies, many opportunities exist for them to study outside of the United States. Many courses taken abroad or away contribute to the Liberal Education or 120-credit requirements. Courses contributing to a College of Business major must be approved by the department chair prior to enrollment. Additional information about study abroad programs is available on the Center for International Education website.

Service-Learning Experience

Business students can apply the functional knowledge and communication skills gained in the classroom through service in the community. Service-learning is an academic experience that combines community services with intentional learning goals, reflection, and critical analysis. Service-learning offers students the opportunity to apply knowledge gained in the classroom through service to others. All UW-Eau Claire undergraduates are required to complete 30 or more clock hours of curricular, extracurricular, or co-curricular service-learning. Acceptable activities can take many forms. Service-learning activities may be integrated into a course or may involve participation in a community service program or internship. Service-learning projects are typically unpaid. Information regarding the completion of the service-learning requirement can be obtained from the department chairs or the University’s Service-Learning website.

Faculty/Student Collaborative Research

Business students can gain functional knowledge and practice communication and teamwork skills by working with a faculty member on an academic research project. Research projects are presented at the University’s Celebration of Excellence in Research and Creative Activity (CERCA) event. Students may gain independent study credit for the experience. This opportunity is particularly beneficial for students considering graduate school. Additional information about faculty/student collaborative research experiences is available from the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs website.

Business Student Organizations

Pre-business and business students can apply the knowledge and skills learned in the classroom through active participation in student business organizations. Members network with professionals, go on field trips to businesses, plan meetings, organize fund-raising events, participate in social occasions, attend regional and national conferences, and build lasting friendships with other business students. Additional information is available on the Student Organizations in Business website.

College of Business Scholarships

Refer to the Business Scholarships website for an up-to-date listing of College of Business scholarships.
