

ENTREPRENEURSHIP, MINOR

Pair your passion with entrepreneurial skills. The Entrepreneurship minor provides practical, high-impact strategies to apply creative thinking and business savvy to any major – from the arts and sciences, to healthcare, tech, education, or any industry engaged in business.

Entrepreneurship minors take a one-year cohort sequence of entrepreneurship courses alongside foundational business classes such as economics and business law. Through real-world projects and industry mentorship, you will build the mindset and skill set to identify opportunities, solve problems, and create value - no matter where your career takes you.
