¹ Elective courses must meet requirements as published by U.S. Army Cadet Command policy letters. Qualification of instructor and syllabus content are key factors in these requirements. Students must confirm that specific courses meet these requirements with ROTC program advisors prior to enrollment.

² These courses are available to Junior and Seniors only, and a request must be submitted to the respective departments to waive course prerequisites.

Note: Credit for MSL 399 is primarily tied to Cultural Understanding and Language Proficiency (CULP) program, Cadet Troop Leader Training (CTLT), and Cadet Internships. These summer programs allow for experiential learning linking institutional learning to work experience.
